

FINANCIAL CONSIDERATIONS

ESTIMATED ANNUAL COST OF EDUCATION (based on 2023-2024 estimated rates)

Yearly full-time UND undergraduate tuition and fees, variable: For more information about tuition rates specific to you, click here .	$11,091.84, full-time, ND resident $12,216.96, full-time, MN resident $15,780.72, full-time, other states
Self-Paced Enroll Anytime courses (SPEA) For further detail, click here .	$384.88 per credit
Yearly per credit UND graduate tuition and fees, variable: For more information about tuition rates specific to you, click here .	$578.22, on-campus, ND resident $715.05, on-campus, MN resident $831.62, on-campus, other states
Living, varies: For information on housing rates, click here .	$4,895+
Meal Plans, varies: For more information on meal plans, click here .	$5152+
Additional Program Costs
Textbooks and supplies	$2000+
Physical exam	50-100
Verified Credentials – annual background check, immunizations, drug screening, etc. (requirements for placement in partner facilities)	75+
Insurance*
Health	400+
Automobile	275+
Professional clothes (lab coat required in some MNT rotations)	250+
Nametag	15
Additional living expenses for supervised practice experiences 	250-2000+
Annual membership fees/dues
Academy of Nutrition & Dietetics student member (required)	$58
North Dakota Nutrition Council (optional but highly encouraged)	$0
Student Association for Nutrition & Dietetics (required)	$15
Professional meeting attendance expenses * * *	100+
RDN Exam study material	0-400+

*Professional liability insurance is covered by UND policy.

CP is approved for remote supervised practice. Cost for supervised practice will vary with the selection of sites since some students may stay where they have housing available and others may stay in hotels; expenses may include transportation, lodging, meals and other incidentals.

Attendance at various local, state, and national meetings or events is encouraged. Attendance for at least one professional meeting/event is an expectation annually. Expenses may include transportation, lodging, meals, and registration. Cost varies by meeting and location.

Find more information on financial aid here. You may wish to contact the Admissions Office to verify the latest figures at onestop@und.edu.